On 15th Oct 2022, the institute has celebrated the National Innovation Day an Vachan Prerana Din, to commemorate the birth anniversary of former president of India, Bharat Ratna Dr. A. P. J. Abdul Kalam. In the morning students were give poster presentation as part of the Institute Level Avishkar Comeptetion. Dr. Monali Khachane from Annsaheb G. D. Bendale Women's Arts, Sci. Commerce College was the resource person. She has given important tips about presenting the posters in Avishkar.

In the afternoon session, Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam's birth anniversary was celebrated as "Reading Inspiration Day", with enthusiasm.

Prof. Dr. Sunil Kulkarni, Director Student Welfare Department, Kaviyatri Bahinabai Chaudhary North Maharashtra University and Dr. Bhagyashree Bhalwatkar, Department of Sanskrit, M. J. College, as the Chief Guest of honor and resource person were present on this occasion. Honorable Director of the institute, Prof. Dr. Shilpa Bendale along with Dr. Varsha Pathak and Mrs. Varsha Zhanke, I.M. R. Knowledge Resource Center were also present on the dais. Dr. Shilpa Bendale has briefly introduced the life of Bharat Ratna Dr. A.P. J. Abdul Kalam and explained the purpose of celebrating Reading Inspiration Day very aptly to the students. As the Chief Guest Prof. Dr. Sunil Kulkarni in his speech appealed to the students to cultivate reading habit as a tool of motivation. Two things make a man wise, one is the book he reads and two is the people he meets, so one should be able to read people along with books. Apart from language, a lot of communication is done through gestures, tone, movements, eyes. So we should be able to read these things too. His beautiful interpretation Dr. Kulkarni did. Dr. Bhagyashree Bhalwatkar started her speech through Sanskrit verses. Vedas are the first written literature and thus they show us the way to have what is good in the world. Epics like Ramayana and Mahabharata give us life lessons. Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj as well as Sambhaji Maharaj have made great achievements in the field of literature and reading.
